

NOT GAINING VOTES

Hughes' Campaign So Far a Distinct Failure.

Republican Candidate Seems Incapable of Dealing With Issues That Are Really Important—Nothing but Piffle and Evasion.

Mr. Charles Evans Hughes is showing a positive genius in the discovery and exploitation of unimportant issues and the evasion of all-important ones.

Half the world is on fire, and the sparks are falling on or near our own soil almost daily.

The American people have made many world blunders, but never yet, in case of crisis, have they chosen a leader who did not dare say he meant to lead.

PUTS ONUS ON REPUBLICANS

Statement by General Board of the Navy Explains How Country Lost Second Place.

The industry of those who are after the scalp of Secretary Daniels has led some people to suppose that the Unit of States navy under the Wilson administration has fallen from a high estate to a position of alarming inferiority.

The general board, reporting to him, states that, measured by displacement, the strength of the United States navy in ships built was second in 1907, but by 1911, measured by the same standard, we were third.

DEMOCRATS HAVE DONE WELL

Record of Wise Legislation Entitled Party in Power to the Support of the Voters.

For a long time the Republican party avenged to itself the wakening of the business man's party.

But the opportunity came to the Democratic party in 1912, and it has more than fulfilled the highest expectations.

It thousands of business men in New York crowd the Democratic presidential ticket in what years' time of thousands will vote that ticket in November.

Still the Party of Spoils. Senator Gallagher's endorsement of the day's affairs with his praise for the living standard, was a further digressing out of the question to the Republican mind.

Record to Be Proud Of. Never in the history of the country has congress accomplished so much for the tiller of the soil as it has done in the short space of a little less than three years since Wilson's inauguration.

Whether the Democrats or the Republicans are victorious in the November election the remarkable record will stand as a monument to Democratic statesmanship and a great party's honesty of purpose.

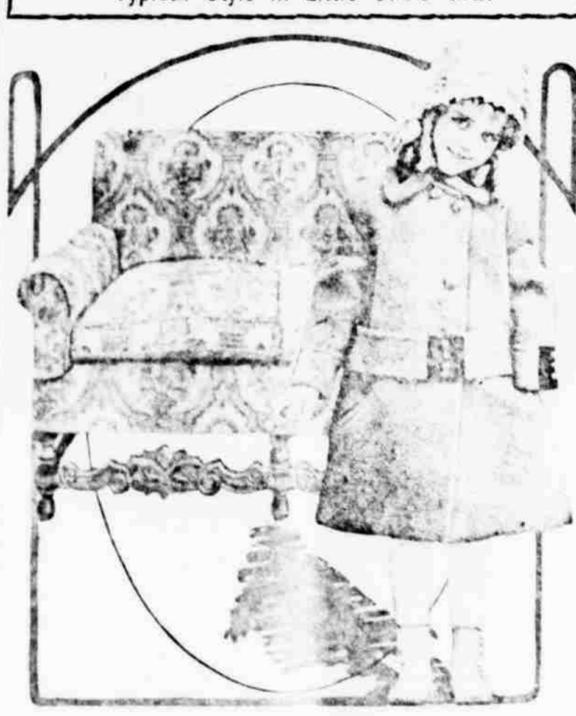

Hughes Must Say Where He Stands. Where does Judge Hughes stand? Does he favor a larger standing army, and if so, how large?

Driving Coat of Bolivia Cloth

There is an interesting distribution of new names each season given to our tried friends in the realm of apparel, and to colors and shades of colors with which we are familiar.

Typical Style in Little Girl's Coat

For low necked gowns, velvet and fur have been the favorites in 1912, and the dress for little girls.

But for coats that are to serve for everyday wear heavy cloths are used, Bolivia cloth and certain of the fabrics, with chevrons and some new weaves, are among them.

A dark gray coat with small frays of black velvet among the details of its finishing is a typical style for the little girl. It is a good model to follow when fur-fabrics are used.

Save the Babies. INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year, thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!
